Description

The ELIZABETH HAMMOND HOUSE is a two storey frame house, closely oriented to the road, its principal facade to the west. Two long bays in length, its west facade is sheltered by a one-storey shed-roofed porch. The principal entrance is very close to the window of the southerly bay. Typical windows are 6/6 with narrow frames. The standing-seam tin roof extends over all walls with a wide eave and rake overhang and the single-flue brick chimney rises near the center of the house. Exterior walls are covered with wood shingles.

The interior of this house was not inspected.

Elizabeth Hammond rents this property from Charles M. Burnham who extensive tracts in the Green Spring Valley as well as in Chattolane. He inherited all these from his father and I could not distinguish which plot was which from the surveyor's description. Mr. Burnham is a very kind man who would probably be most helpful if you called him at 363-1400 at his company.
